About the Weekend

Lama Yeshe will begin the weekend with a public talk about loving relationships—creating and cultivating love and compassion. On Saturday and Sunday, his topics will range from Buddhist basics, to the ideas of reincarnation, faith and devotion. Guided meditation will be incorporated into the weekend, as well as time for Q&A.

Location

The Friday night public talk will be held at Evansville Power Yoga at 4814 Tippecanoe Drive, Evansville, IN. All other sessions will be held in the small chapel at First Presbyterian Church at 609 S.E. Second Street, Evansville, IN. For more information, see our website or call Alan at 812-449-8924.

Lama Yeshe Gyamtso completed two three-year retreats during the 1980s at Kagyu Thubten Chöling under the guidance of Kyapje Kalu Rinpoche and Lama Norlha Rinpoche. He has since been teaching and translating for many great masters, including His Holiness the Seventeenth Karmapa and Bardor Tulku Rinpoche.
